

20. Law enforcement officers should be able to use modern wiretapping and surveillance equipment to catch criminals.
21. Radical political groups are a serious threat to American society.
22. Requirements for any military duty, including combat, should be based on physical, emotional, and intellectual abilities with no reference to gender.
23. Citizens who are a part of society that has been discriminated against should be given preferential treatment to "catch up."
24. Certain literature should be banned from city libraries if it is determined to be improper or too controversial by the librarian or a review board.
25. Burning an American flag in protest should be a protected form of free speech.
26. Money used on defense should be used for other priorities such as education and welfare.
27. The USA should impose economic sanctions on any nation with a history of human rights violations or racial discrimination.
28. All persons planning to be married should have a mandatory AIDS test before a marriage certificate can be issued.
29. Spending on foreign aid should be reduced.
30. The USA should try to find energy alternative to nuclear power and stop the construction and use of nuclear generating plants as soon as possible.
31. All American families should be guaranteed a minimum annual income.
32. Sexual harassment of women in the workplace is a serious problem and should be prosecuted under the law.
33. The main function of prisons should be to rehabilitate criminals, not to punish them.
34. The states should abolish criminal penalties for gambling, prostitution, and other victimless crimes.
35. Local and state governments should handle many of the functions now handled by the federal government.
36. The federal government must take strong steps to protect the environment even if it means the loss of some jobs.
37. Most adults on welfare are lazy and do not want to work.
38. Profanity and sexually oriented material on television should be stopped or penalized by the government.
39. The United States must stop the flow of immigrants, both documented and undocumented, from Latin America and the Caribbean.
40. High school students should have the right to hear speakers from the Gay and Lesbian Alliance without interference from school administrators.