

ACTIVITY 3 - PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRE

Have you declared your candidacy and read, “Tips for Running for Office,” but now you are not sure what to do next? Here is a start: e-mail kvusamc@live.com with your numbered answers to this questionnaire and we will put your answers on your candidate page on our website.

1. Name.
2. School and Year in School.
3. Why did you decide to run for President?
4. Why do you deserve your party’s endorsement for President?
5. If elected President, what would be your first item of action and why?
6. Jobs and the economy have been the central themes of recent elections, what would you do to help improve our nation’s economy and create more jobs?
7. What do you think is our biggest threat to national security, and what action would you take to combat that threat?
8. Immigration has been a hot-button issue in this Presidential campaign season. Would you institute any type of immigration reform, and if so, what would that reform look like?
9. What is your stance on gun control and what measures, if any, would you take to change the current laws regarding guns?
10. What would you do to address the health care issues facing families? Do you think health care should be a public or private option?
11. What issues are most important to your campaign and why?
12. Pick two of the issues you identified in response to question #11. How would you address those issues?
13. What is one reason delegates should support you over the other candidates?